SANTA, TOO . . . Even Santa Claus has taken the advice of the National Safety Council and installed seat belts in his traditional sleigh. Santa demonstrates the use of the seat belts to Marlane "Miss Torrance" Norsoph. The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold a seat belt clinic in January, and gift certificates good for seat belts can be purchased before Christmas from any Jaycee member.

Exchange Student Host Families May Apply Now

Families of students attending West High next year may apply now if they are interested in hosting an exchange student during 1964-65. The exchange student would live with a West High family while attending the school as a member of the senior class. Generally, expenses are paid by the American Field Service, and the host family is responsible only for room and board.

Foerster Wins Speech Award

Doug Foerster, a student at Redlands University, won a second place rating in extemporaneous speaking at the Western State Speech Assn. championships last week. Foerster, a member of the Redlands speech team, was one of three individual winners for Redlands in the annual championships.

Lecture Tuesday

Dr. Ernest Kanitz, American composer, will discuss "The Meaning of Music" Tuesday evening at Marymount College in the Science Building at 7:30 p.m. Admission is without charge.

Exchange students under the AFS program are between 16 and 18 years old and have an excellent knowledge of English. Further information and application forms are available from Miss Mariann Millard in the West High counseling office or from Mrs. Joseph Dock, Clovis Bender, from Sao Paulo, Brazil, is presently living with the A. I. Prescott family while completing his senior year at West High.

St. Francis Will Present 'The Messiah'

Dr. Richard McClure will direct the annual performance of the Christmas portion of "The Messiah" by Handel to be presented next Sunday at 8 p.m. in St. Francis Episcopal Church, Palos Verdes Estates. Soloists for this performance will be Marie Gibson, soprano; Kay Fessenden, contralto; Alex Martin, tenor; and Harry Read, bass.

Four Members Initiated by Jaycees Here

Four local residents have been initiated into membership in the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce. Initiated at last month's general meeting were: Frank W. Boiender, sales representative for Bailey, Green, and Elger, Inc.; Bill J. Ladd, Mattel Toys; Thomas F. Mooneyham, Reynolds Metals Co.; and Gilbert C. Peterson, who is employed in The HERALD'S composing room. The Torrance Jaycees is an organization for men from 21 to 36. The local chapter has been active in numerous civic and community service projects.

Seat Belts For Gifts, Says Jaycees

Looking for a Christmas gift that will be used? Something which is sure to be remembered? The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce has just the thing.

The Jaycees are sponsoring a seat belt clinic Jan. 18 and 19 at the Del Amo Center Annex, Sepulveda and Hawthorne, and the club currently is selling gift certificates for Christmas giving.

Seat belts are priced at $5.95 each, and installation by the Jaycees is free at the clinic. Belts come in seven colors — from white to black. The gift certificates may be purchased now, and when the clinic opens, the Jaycees will install the belts.

Belts are approved by the California Highway Patrol, and the clinic has the sanction of the Torrance Traffic Safety Council.

Get your gift certificate now, and come January, your car will be a lot safer.

Sheltered Workshops Number 120

Salvage Bureau Sheltered Workshop, 22020 Edgar St., is one of the more than 120 rehabilitation workshops for the handicapped serving every type of physical and mental disability, according to a recent survey conducted by Dr. Nathan Nelson, consultant, department of vocational rehabilitation, Sacramento.

Richard T. Whaling, assistant branch manager of the local center, stated that the workshop furnishes training, work opportunity and selective placement to physically and mentally handicapped persons to prepare them for work in industry. The work ranges from general non-skilled to highly skilled electronic assembly.

At the fourth annual convention of the California Conference of Workshops to be held Jan. 29-31 at the Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach, "Sheltered Workshops and Selective Placement" will be discussed by a panel of experts including A. W. Turner, Southern California Gas Co. supervisor of employe relations, and Dr. Charles I. Barron, medical director, Lockheed Corp. of Burbank.

The California Conference of Workshops for the Handicapped is a professional organization serving the needs of sheltered workshops and handicapped people throughout California.
